

PRESS RELEASE

Christie & Grey are delighted to announce the introduction of Herrekor S.L as the distributor of our Anti-Vibration products in both Spain and Portugal. We believe that Herrekor S.L will provide superior support to both our existing and future customer-base in both countries; as they have a highly experienced Sales and Engineering team to promote the Christie & Grey product range.

Since their inception in 1978, Herrekor S.L have held true to the same philosophy as Christie & Grey, by desiring to give all customers the most appropriate solution to meet their needs and provide superior technical solutions to multiple industries.

They also represent a large range of global brands which includes CENTA Antriebe Kirschey GmbH, a company which we hold in the highest regard.
